J U D G M E N T

It is submitted by the learned Government Pleader that after getting instructions that the directions contained in the judgment have been complied with and the Government has nominated a member to the selection committee in question. A memo to this effect has been filed by the learned Government Pleader along with which the communication received from the Department concerned, is also produced. It is seen mentioned that the District Collector, Idukki, has been permitted to attend the staff selection committee meeting as the representative of the Government for selection of Lecturers in English in Marian College, Kuttikkanam, Peerumade, Idukki District. The memo is taken on record and the Contempt Case (Civil) is closed.
